

Biologic Therapeutics CENTER

Translating Discovery Into Treatment

*Educational mission supported, in part, through ongoing funding from the Foundation for Barnes-Jewish Hospital.

“Liquid biopsies in companion animals shed new light on molecular pathology of non-ischemic heart diseases”

Friday, March 11th 2016 • 9AM - 10AM

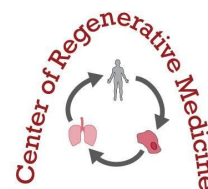

Holden Auditorium • Farrell Learning & Teaching Center

Andrew M. Hoffman, DVM, DVSc, DACVIM

Professor, Large Animal Medicine
Director, Regenerative Medicine Laboratory
Cummings School of Veterinary Medicine
Tufts University

Co-supported by the Center of Regenerative Medicine at Washington University in St. Louis, School of Medicine
<http://devbio.wustl.edu/REGMED/>

Director, David T. Curiel, M.D., Ph.D, dcuriel@radonc.wustl.edu
Special Programs Associate, Cynthia Marich, cmarich@radonc.wustl.edu

www.btc.wustl.edu