Invitation

Indian Association for Advancement of Veterinary Research (IAAVR) and Institute of Animal Health and Veterinary Biologicals and veterinary college, Hebbal, KVAFSU are jointly conducting Annual conference of IAAVR and International conference at Bangalore on “THRUST AREAS IN VETERINARY RESEARCH, EDUCATION, REGULATORY REFORMS AND GOVERNANCE FOR QUALITY SERVICES TO FARMERS”

The Institute of Animal Health and Veterinary Biologicals had a modest beginning as “Mysore Serum Institute” founded in 1926 by the erstwhile Maharaja of Mysore to produce hyper-immune serum for the control of Rinderpest Disease in the state. The name of the Institute was changed from “Mysore Serum Institute” to “Institute of Animal Health and Veterinary Biologicals” in view of the multifaceted activities undertaken by the Institute in the production of various Veterinary Biologicals and problem-oriented research on existing, exotic and emerging diseases of livestock. The Institute is located in the Bangalore City on the National Highway-7 next to the Hebbal campus of the KVAFSU, Bidar.

On behalf of the organizing committee, you are invited to participate in this Annual convention. It is hoped that you would avail this unique opportunity. Further, the conference would provide an excellent opportunity to meet professionals, colleagues and friends in the field of Veterinary and Animal Sciences.

Objective

The main objective of the international conference is to highlight the advancements covering various fields in veterinary science with a special reference to the research, education, regulatory reforms and quality services aiming to improve the livestock health, trade finally benefitting the farmers of the country. Veterinarians of all the disciplines are invited to present the papers with key note addresses from eminent scientists.
