

One Health @UGA

Thursday, Nov 14, 2013

10:00 A.M - 3:00 P.M

UGA Coverdell Center, Room 175

Free registration and lunch

Register: rabies.eventbrite.com

Rabies:

An old disease with new tricks

Speakers and lecture titles:

Jesse Blanton, Poxvirus and Rabies Branch, NCEZID, CDC:

"Few Poisons More Deadly than a Mad Dog's Tooth: Rabies in the US and Abroad"

Cherie Drenzek, State Epidemiologist, Georgia Department of Public Health:

"Rabies Prevention: Some New Tricks from an Old Dog"

Zhen Fu, Professor, College of Veterinary Medicine, University of Georgia:

"Rabies Virus Infection and Innate Immunity: Mechanisms of Immune Evasion"

Sonia Altizer, Associate Professor, Odum School of Ecology, University of Georgia:

"Drivers of Rabies Exposure and Persistence in Vampire Bat Colonies in Latin America"

Julie Gabel, State Public Health Veterinarian, GA Department of Public Health:

"Coons, Cows and Cats, Oh My! Rabies in Georgia"

Melissa Ivey, Epidemiologist, GA Department of Public Health:

"Building a Rabies Surveillance System: A One Health Approach"

Neil Vora, Poxvirus and Rabies Branch, NCEZID, CDC:

"The Masked Bandit: A Transplant Tragedy"